Jurupa Community Services District Named As A Top Workplace

This is the second consecutive year Jurupa Community Services District has been recognized.

Jurupa Valley, CA (February 11, 2022) – Jurupa Community Services District (JCSD) has been named one of the Inland Empire’s “Top Workplaces” by the Inland News Group. JCSD is one of the 33 honorees in the Top Workplaces program for 2021.

The recognition is provided to employers best demonstrating workplace excellence. The Award highlights JCSD’s efforts to maintain a positive working environment through its values of STRIVE: S – Speak Straight and Listen Generously; T – Trust Our Team; R – Respect; I – Inspirational; V – Visionary; E – Empowered.

“JCSD is proud that the high-quality service we provide to our customers and community is matched by the quality of our staff’s working environment,” said Chris Berch, General Manager. “From our Board of Directors to the staff, everyone contributes to our inspiring culture through hard work, innovation, and professionalism.”

The Top Workplace award is based on anonymous employee feedback through a survey hosted by Energage. A total of 1,306 employers in the region were invited to participate in the 2021 program. The Inland News Group consists of The Press-Enterprise, The Sun, The Facts, and Inland Valley Daily Bulletin.
